With School back in session now, the Alma Police Department wants to remind parents of the Ordinances that were put in place for curfew of minors, penalties for minors, and parental responsibilities.

Ordinance No. 545-Pertaining to Curfew

It shall be unlawful for any minor under the age of eighteen (18) years to loiter, wander, stroll or play in any public place unsupervised by his/her parent, legal guardian or other adult over the age of twenty-one (21) years, having lawful care and custody of the minor and having the lawful authority to be at such places from 11:00P.M. to sunrise of the following day; provided however that on Fridays and Saturdays the evening curfew shall begin at 12:00 P.M. Midnight rather than 11:00 P.M.; and provided further that the provisions of this Section shall not apply in the following instances:

1. When the minor is upon an emergency errand directed by his/her parent, guardian or other adult person twenty-one (21) years of age or older having the lawful care and custody of the minor.
2. When the minor is returning directly home from a school activity.
3. When the minor is returning to or returning directly home from lawful employment that makes it necessary to be in above-referenced places during the prescribed period of time.
4. When the minor is attending or traveling directly to or from an activity involving the exercise of First Amendment rights of free speech, freedom of assembly or free exercise of religion; and
5. When the minor is engaged in interstate and intrastate vehicular travel through the City of Alma with parental consent.
6. When the minor is married or has been married pursuant to State Law.

Ordinance No. 546-Parental Responsibility

It shall be unlawful for the parent or guardian of any minor knowingly to, or by insufficient control, to allow such minor to violate Ordinance No. 545. Any person who violates this Section will be subject to the jurisdiction of Municipal Court.

Ordinance No. 547-Penalties for Minors

Any minor seventeen (17) years of age who violates Ordinance No.545, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of Municipal Court.

Any person or persons not complying with the rules as stated above shall be considered to have committed the offense, which upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), and/or by imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days.
