NEWS FROM ALMA

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Alma Police Department has been receiving many complaints that dogs are running at large and unattended by their owners. As the City DOES have a leash law, the Alma Police Department does have the authority to have your dog impounded at your cost or a summons may be issued to the registered owner for each offense. Keep your dog restrained with a leash when you are not on your property. When walking your dog, please be respectful to other citizens and their property and restrict your dog to the street.

Annual Easter Egg Hunt in Alma City Park

This event has been sponsored by Parents As Teachers in past years. As this is a State funded organization, they have received budget cuts that would have helped fund this activity for the kids. They are looking to the community for donations of either individually wrapped candy or a monetary donation so that they can continue to hold this fun event for the kids. If there is an organization that would like to sponsor it as well, please contact Barb Lovercamp. If you are interested in making a donation, please contact Barb Lovercamp or City Hall.

The Alma Pharmacy was located where the Steffens Shoe Service is today, at the time this picture was taken. Ralph J. Fisher was the pharmacist, with his daughter Ruth. In the early years of Alma history, the drug store changed hands many times. Dr. J.G.W. Fisher bought the business in 1912 and following his death in December of 1952, his son Ralph continued to operate the business in the same location.
